Rod

Hi Ron
You know, God has done a great deal for me this last year, as you know I had quite a lot of accidents this last year and twice I could have died! God means more to me than anything else in this old world! Look up to Him at all times, keep your eyes upon Jesus, He is our wonderful savior. He'll take care of you in your time of need & victory.
Bless your life.
Love,

asb president

mr. president—the most glamorous position in student government. bob has done a magnificent job of leading a divided school. bob has tried—and in some cases succeeded in uniting a school not interested in unity. for his many hours of work, for his caring about the school, and for being the person he is, we thank bob bragstad.

foreign exchange

understanding is the by-word of this club. although only one student is sent overseas, everybody involved picks up knowledge of our world, and a greater respect for all people.

social science seminar

social science seminar is not for the apathetic student. if you are interested in your world and its problems, this group is for you. sss is open to all seniors and invited juniors.

"bp is the best!" pep club is dedicated to showing the rest of the world that this is true. composed of students who care, pep club is one of the largest groups on campus.

y-teens

looking for energetic girls? monday nights at bphs you will find a host of lively ladies engaged in various services and social projects. interested in people? this group might be for you (if you're a girl).

members: rosella may; marie maesele, cynthia riggle, sue bouldin, pat barnes, peggy king, susie rupp.

every girl on campus is in the girls' league. this group is interested in and promotes good taste in dress for girls (among other activities). here is a chance for all girls to become involved.

officers: dianna hamilton, pres.; natalie swan, v.p.; sue calesanzio, sec.; marilyn bacon, treas.; denise rhudy, senior rep.; melody moore, jun. rep.; nancy collela, soph. rep.; karen larkin, frosh rep.

girls' league

girls' league dance

drama

drama club, is the schools most creative club. they work hard on many productions throughout the year.

thespians

thespians are an honorary drama group. over the year they go into depth in their study of the aspects of drama.

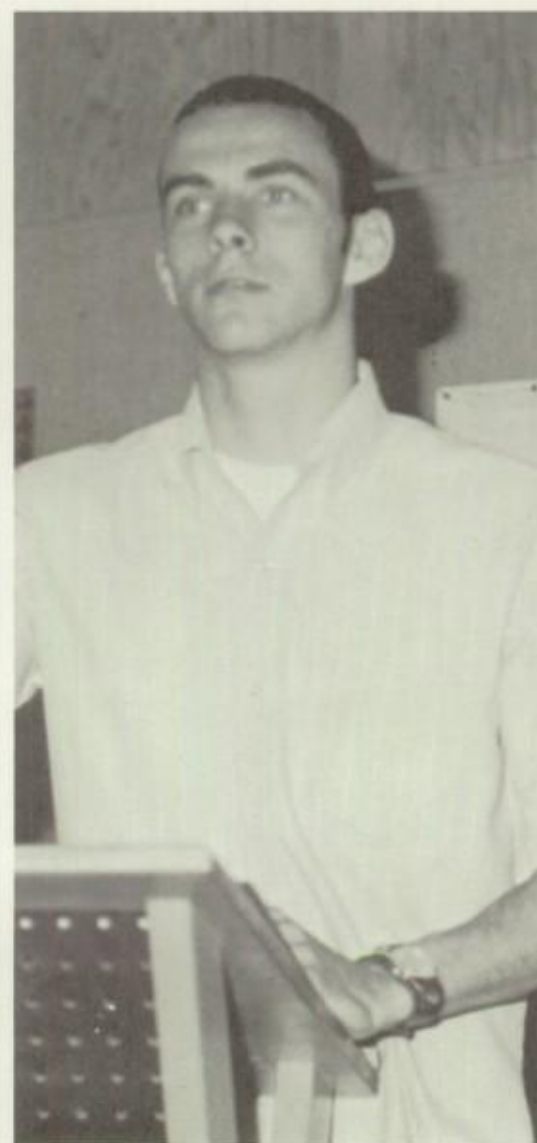

members of these two clubs include dianna hamilton, pres., harry anderson, v. pres.; craig shaugnessy, sec.-treas.; don irvine, debbie benedict, candy stanton and deborah peachy. advisor, mr. smith.

n.f.l.

the speech club and the national forensic league are interested in promoting speech as a competitive activity on campus. these two clubs have been more or less inactive this year.

members: steve crawford, ed steiner,
bruce passerow, fred hamilton.

aviation

whoosh—off into the blue! these boys are really serious about their club. several have their pilots licenses. anyone need a ride?

radio

radio and electronics is a group of dedicated students interested in the field of electronics. this club is really "buzzing."

attack on the right flank! move in the troops!! chess a dull game? hardly—ask anyone in chess club.

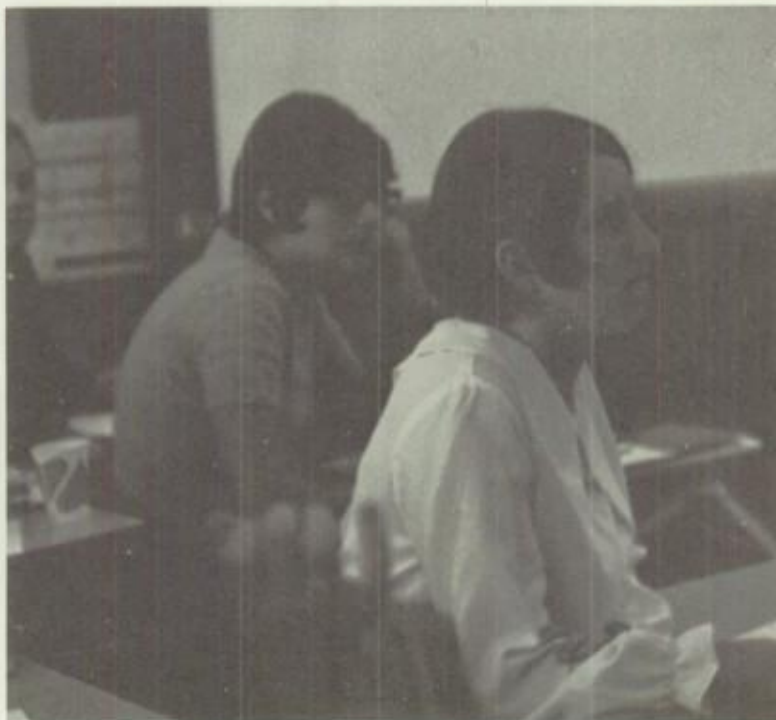

bp's newest club is also a large one. Their activities will include a faculty-student tournament. this is bp's most striking club.

bowling

math club

2 + 2.64 math club? never! although math club is a serious group it is not a "brain squad." the club studies the unusual side of math.

science club is a large and diverse organization. most areas of science are covered during the year.

science

the joiners

john russell, fred hamilton and frank dimond are probably three of the busiest students on campus. they are actively involved in every club on campus, with the exception of gaa and girls' league. math club, csf, icc, photography, aviation, physics, science, aquarium, and the three language clubs are just a few of the extra curricular activities of this trio.

photography

b.p.'s shutter bugs take an active interest in the art of photography—a small but active organization of dedicated people.

members: fred hamilton, todd tuen, chris liebsack, michael gains, and advisor mr. robert goodrich.

varsity

the only club on campus that has restricted membership (varsity lettermen) has gained a reputation of service to the school. these boys deserve a big thanks for what they've done for b.p.

coyote christian fellowship is a club that believes that god is calling young people and challenging them to be used in a "mighty way". this club sponsors an annual playnite with free refreshments, singers, and a guest speaker. the club advisors are mr. robert tomes and mr. jack iverson.

preparing for a life in the office? this club is made of students planning on going into one of the many business fields.

"a women's work is never done." ask any of our future homemakers and find out that the work can be done—and be fun too. one of bp's really progressive clubs.

french

le cercle français—all french students may join this club. they hold interesting discussions on all aspects of french. mis flora anderson is the advisor.

spanish

the spanish club studies most aspects of the spanish culture and way of life. it sponsors dances, sales, and spanish plays.

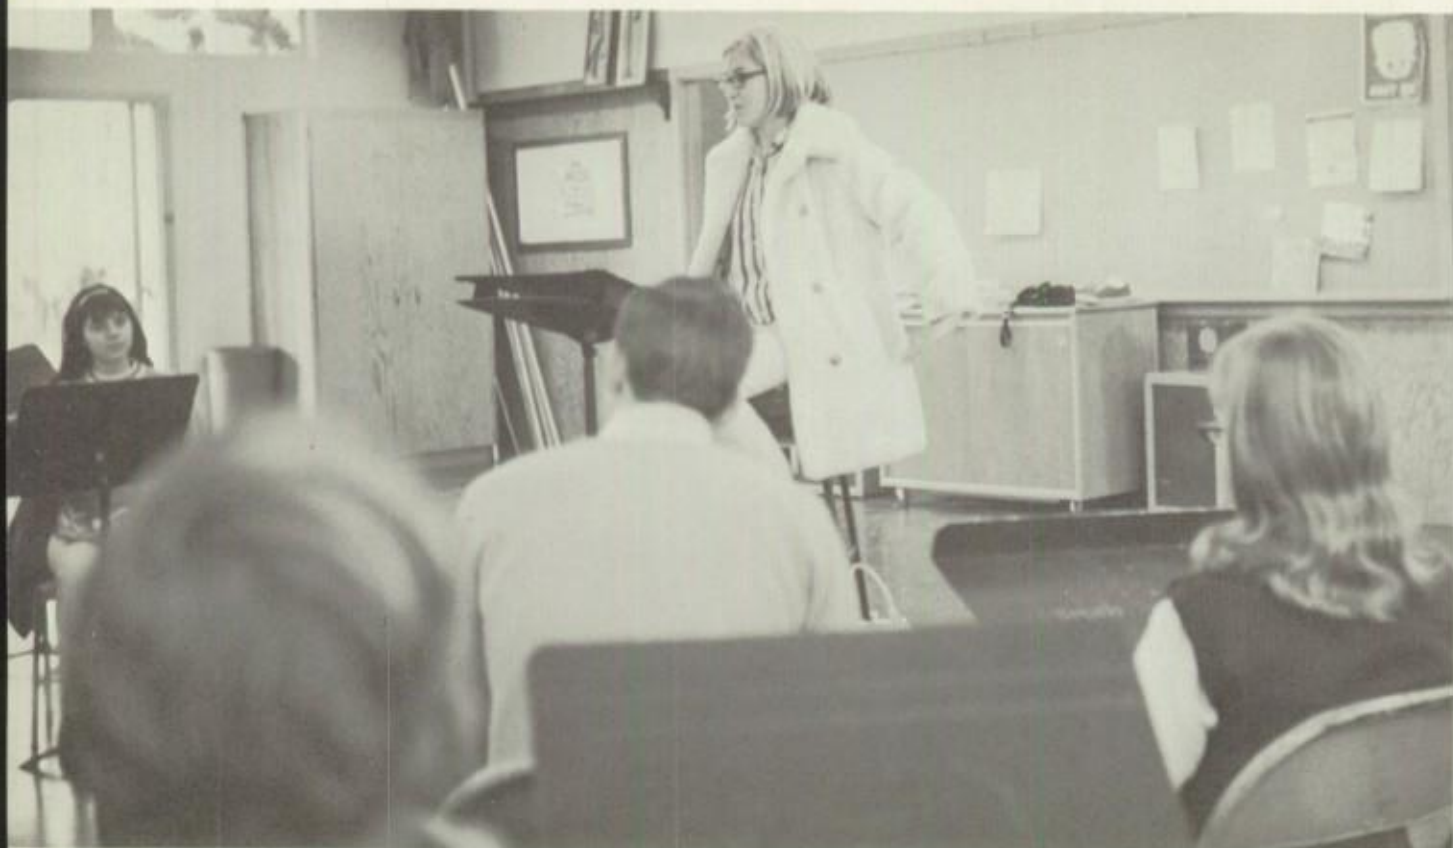

members: laura young, susan jester, krissi kawahara, marlene curtis, starla rivera, john russell, rosabelle rivera, sue sevet, frank dimond, fred hamilton, ivy mealin, bill hamilton, chesette perez, nila osline, lily villalobos, and advisor mrs. julie swartz.

hemidemisemiquavers
a long word for a big club. bp's music lovers assemble in room 140 to plan and promote concerts and other musical activities. this is a relatively new club that's growing fast.

hum'n strummers our noontime minstrels are really riding high. anyone can join and learn to play. some of the advanced members are even composing their own music.

BADMINTEN

A graphic design featuring a swim cap and the words "WATER POLO", "BASKETBALL", and "SPORT" in a stylized, overlapping arrangement. The swim cap is at the top left, with the words "WATER POLO" and "BASKETBALL" written in large, bold, sans-serif capital letters below it. The word "SPORT" is written in a smaller, similar font to the right. The design is minimalist and modern.

energy . . . this is the word describing these active girls who have devoted much time and effort in g.a.a. competition.

president marlene curtis

the whole gang.

vice president debbie pirkle

treasurer georgina loveday

secretary diane ramirez

these are the leaders of one of the largest organizations on campus. their devotion, pride, and hard work have guided many girls toward good sportsmanship and skill.

teachers

alive! that's the only way to describe this crowd. they devote many hours to the welfare of our girls. can you imagine what our "female coyotes" would look like without them?

KNOTT'S BERRY FARM

Knott's Berry Farm is more than just an amusement park — it's a tradition and an institution that has endeared itself to the hearts of the people of Buena Park. We all owe the Knott family a big thank-you for making "the farm" what it is to all of us.

Knott's Berry Farm has been a tradition in Buena Park ever since any of us can remember. A Knott's Berry Farm not too familiar to some of us is the park across the street with the merry go round, a steam boat on a lake, an enchanted forest with cannibals and it's infested with woodland creatures. We dedicate this page to Knott's Berry Farm across the street.

We at Hunt-Wesson Foods congratulate the graduating class.
We hope you will grow happily ever after.
We know about growing. We have already grown, here in Fullerton, from a small cannery doing $10 million a year to one of the biggest food companies in the country, with over $350 million annual sales. All this in hardly more time than it took you to grow up and get through high school. But we haven't stopped growing. Neither have you.

Happy growing!

some are staying—
 others leave.
 those who go,
 depart with questions.
 we wonder where we're headed
 now that we are on the way.

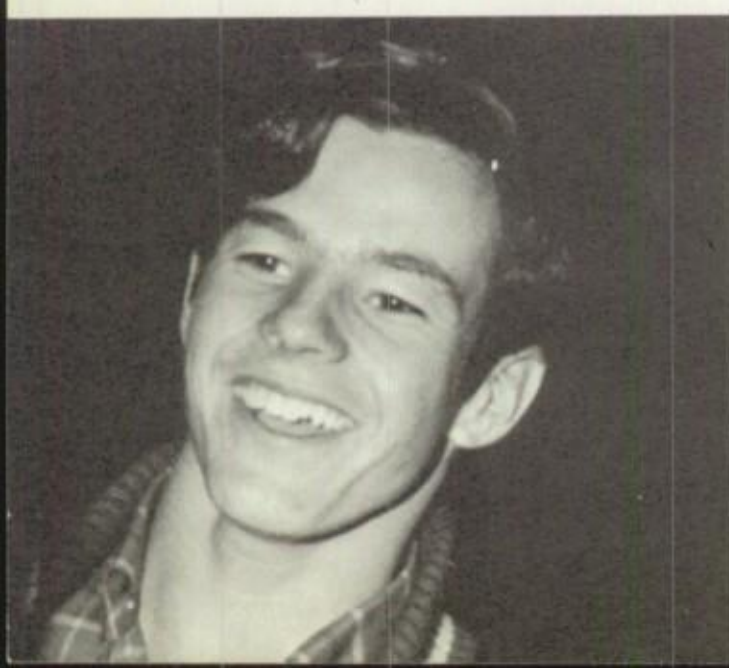

summer's story ended—
no more picnics
or days on the beach.
it all begins again—
we are together,
starting a new year.

changes—
 we're searching,
 developing values.
 casual times,
 formal evenings,
 life at bp—
 never static,
 always on the go.

Ren, I hope you have,
or I know you have
enjoyed music this with
Mr. Buttoe. I guess it
wasn't all that bad.
Spread love and joy this summer with all the girls, and I'll see you next year or sometime. But I'm glad it won't be at B.P.
